Introduction to linguistics 2 (Spring 2022)

Mid semester exams

25 Marks. All questions carry equal marks.

- 1. Indicate the relationship between the following pairs of words (in bold) and explain your choice.
  - a) He is on parole for two weeks.
    Saussure makes a distinction between langue and parole.
  - b) The leaves are falling.

The tree is shedding leaves.

c) The sole of my shoe needs repair.

The sole survivor in the accident has been hospitalized.

d) They will laugh at your silly joke.

The joke made me giggle.

e) The parrot has a red beak.

The bird flew away.

f) The teacher was in his office.

The students were in the class.

g) I bought the latest issue of India Today.

The librarian refused to issue the book.

h) She bought some flowers for the party.

They purchased a new car.

- i) Don't fiddle with the carpenter's tools.
  The hammer is missing from the kit.
- j) Fill up the bucketEmpty out the bucket.
- Why do you think Absolute Synonymy is extremely rare? Give reasons for your answer with examples, preferably from your own language.
- 3. What do you understand by 'gradable antonyms'? Discuss with reference to their characteristic features.
- A: Discuss the difference between 'entailment' and 'presupposition'. Give suitable examples.
- 5. What do you understand by 'PREDICATION'? Draw a tree diagram of the following sentence starting from PREDICATION to SEMANTIC FEATURES:

'The old woman fried an egg.'